

Silk for Inclusive Growth

the 23rd International Congress on Sericulture &
Silk Industry

24th-27th November, 2014

Bangalore, India

International Sericultural Commission, Bangalore, India

Welcome to Bangalore, India and the 23rd Congress on Sericulture & Silk Industry

The International Sericultural Commission (ISC) takes great pleasure in inviting you to the prestigious, XXIII International Congress of the International Sericultural Commission on Sericulture and Silk Industry being held at Bangalore, the Silk, BT & IT Capital of India, from 24th to 27th November, 2014.

23rd Congress on Sericulture & Silk Industry

The ISC Congress, which is a triennial event, is the only international forum committed exclusively for the sericulture and silk sector that provides access to progress made in sericulture science and technology, current knowledge of the field, and the prevailing global business environment for silks.

It offers an exclusive opportunity for international scientists, universities, faculty & students of Institutions of research in mulberry and non-mulberry silkworms, host-plants, post-cocoon technology, silk processing, promotion, bio-technology, sericulture management & economies, etc., including those in silk and silk related businesses to interact, share and exchange the most recent advancements in their fields.

Presentation of a large number of scientific papers, apart from several poster presentations covering the entire range of sericulture and silk production activities during the Congress, is expected to lead up to the formation and dissemination of current and new scientific and adaptive knowledge in the field of sericulture and silk, including honing up the base-line skills as well as core competencies of the participants.

A global assembly of this standing also envisages generating usable trade information, and promoting mercantile and economic relations amongst silk producing, processing and consuming countries.

In effect, the Proceedings of this International Congress would bring together in a single, free, open, equitable access-resource, the collective knowledge and erudition of the international sericulture and silk community, displayed in the presence of an insightful global audience, which can be usefully translated into strategic tools for the advancement of sericulture and silk sectors in respective countries.

The Theme - “Silk for Inclusive Growth”

Sericulture and silk industry has been considered as an ideal rural avocation for employment generation and poverty alleviation. Thus, the industry significantly contributes to inclusive development for the national economy of many countries. Keeping this important factor in mind, the ISC Governing Body has decided to adopt the Congress theme as “Silk for Inclusive Growth”. The Congress would have exclusive lead papers concerning this subject for detailed deliberation.

A Global Assembly of Distinction

The Congress is open to all persons associated with the development of sericulture and silk industry. The composition of participants, limited to about 350, has been planned to be a diverse international group comprising policy planners, scientists, technocrats, resource persons, university faculty, university students, NGOs, entrepreneurs, industrialists, silk exporters & traders, fashion designers, silk machinery manufacturers, rearing accessories & chemicals manufacturers, Government officials, and a cross-section of the sericulture and silk fraternity.

The Organizer

The International Sericultural Commission (ISC), established in 1960, which had its headquarters at Lyon, France, is now functioning from Bangalore, India with effect from 1st January, 2013, consequent upon the election of an Indian nominee as the Secretary General. ISC is the only inter-governmental organization engaged in the development of sericulture and silk industry in the world. The 13 Member Countries of ISC are Brazil, Egypt, France, Greece, India, Indonesia, Iran, Japan, Madagascar, Romania, Syria, Thailand and Tunisia. For more details about ISC, please visit <http://inserco.org>

The Venue

The venue of the Congress is Hotel Leela Palace, Bangalore. The Leela Palace, Bangalore, set among 9 acres of ornate gardens and cascading waterfalls, offers the ultimate in five-star indulgence with palatial accommodations and world class dining. Inspired by the architectural glory of Mysore and the art and embellishment by renowned architects, the Leela captures a feeling of grandeur and majesty that combines the riches of Indian history with contemporary opulence and comfort. For more details, visit <http://www.theleela.com/locations/bangalore/hotel-information>

Silk Exhibition

An international exhibition on sericulture and silk industry would be organized parallel to the Congress by the Silk Mark Organization of India (SMOI) under the Central Silk Board (CSB), Ministry of Textiles, Government of India, Bangalore, India. The exhibition provides opportunity for the silk companies around the world to showcase their products. The silk producing countries may also use the occasion to display the sericulture development and silk products of their countries. The exhibition will have theme pavilion depicting entire silk production chain.

Buyer-Seller Meet

For those interested delegates, CSB would be organizing buyer-seller meet during the Congress at the Silk Exhibition venue.

Hotel Accommodation for your stay

A wide range of hotel tariffs are available in Bangalore city. The organizer would be honoured to assist you in making your hotel reservations, based on your choice. The hotel costs have to be settled by the delegate at the time of vacating the hotel. A Hotel Fact-Sheet is provided elsewhere in this brochure, which is basically recommended for Overseas Delegates (regarding your hotel choice, please e-mail your requirement to the Co-ordinator, International Congress on Sericultural and Silk Industry. E-mail address and telephone numbers are already given).

Indian delegates, who prefer different range of hotel tariffs, may also contact the Co-ordinator, International Congress on Sericulture and Silk Industry indicating their preferences and tariff ranges.

Bangalore, the host city

Bangalore, the silk capital of India is the fastest growing metropolis of the country and a major centre for Information Technology and garment designing. The city with a population of about 9 million is also known for its beautiful gardens, parks and heritage buildings. It houses many national and international research and computer software institutions like the Indian Institute of Science, National Institute of Biological Science (NCBS), Raman Institute, National Aeronautical Laboratory (NAL), Indian Institute of Management (IIM), Indian Space Research Organization (ISRO), Infosys, Wipro, Motorola, Oracle, etc. Biocon is India's top most BT facility, located at Bangalore.

Weather

Winter in Bangalore is mild and balmy, with temperatures ranging from 17° C to 23° C and a mean humidity of about 65%. Light winter wear is recommended.

Currency and Banking

Foreign currency exchange service is available at the Bangalore International Airport and the hotels. The exchange slips may be retained for conversion of Indian Rupees back into foreign currency. Travellers' cheques, and major credit cards are accepted at departmental stores, hotels, airlines, and many business centers. The organizer of the Congress would also arrange a Foreign Exchange Desk at the Venue for your convenience.

Visa

Foreign nationals require a valid Visa to attend the Congress (either a Conference Visa valid for 7 days, or a Business Visa valid for 3 months). An official invitation will be sent to you from the Chief Coordinator of the Congress after receiving your registration form and confirmation of the payment of Registration Fee. Delegates can apply for entry Visa along with the official invitation at the Indian Embassy / Consulate General / Visa Officer of the Government of India, located in their respective countries. It shall be our endeavor to make the Visa formality an easy and pleasant affair for you.

Travel

Bangalore is well connected by air, rail and road. Regular daily flights of Indian Airlines and private airlines fly from all the metros of India to Bangalore. It would take approximately 150 minutes from New Delhi, 140 minutes from Kolkata (Calcutta), 95 minutes from Mumbai (Bombay) and 60 minutes from Chennai (Madras) to fly to Bangalore. Bangalore also has direct international flights to major cities of the world. Bangalore Airport is 35 kms away from the city center and facilities of pre-paid taxies are available to different parts of the city. Airport transfers are part of the Registration Fee of Overseas Delegates.

Travel Assistance

The return tickets for air journey to international destinations are to be reconfirmed atleast 48 hours before the flight time. Assistance of a travel agency will be made available at the Congress venue. Your hotels also can assist in travel reservations / reconfirmations.
